

Andrea Dvorak

Andrea is a veteran professional cyclist who has raced for the US National Team and Exergy Twenty 12 during the 2012 season. Before beginning her professional career, Andrea won Collegiate National Championships in triathlon and was a multiple-time medalist in US Collegiate Cycling Championships. She also ran cross country at the University of Virginia, where she earned a BA in Biology and Spanish and a JD at University of Virginia School of Law. She has been a member of the Virginia Bar since 2006.

During her career, Andrea has gained the reputation as one of the strongest women in the peloton. Her remarkable ability to ride on the front in both flat, technical criteriums as well as mountainous road races makes her one of the most versatile riders in the country.

Andrea is liked and respected by her teammates and directors. She is a consummate professional and understands that being a professional involves more than racing. Andrea is eloquent and good with sponsors. During the off-season she is actively involved with junior development cycling programs in Virginia.
